OVERVIEW

The trip

This Chitwan jungle safari tour from Kathmandu is a short, private road trip down to the Terai plains and Chitwan National Park, Nepal's first national park and a World Heritage Site. You drive to Sauraha on the first day, watch the sun go down over the Rapti River and spend the evening at a Tharu cultural dance. The second day is a full day inside the park by jeep with a park-certified guide, looking for one-horned rhino, deer, crocodiles and birds. On the last morning you visit the government elephant breeding centre at Khorsor before driving back. It suits families, first-time visitors and anyone who wants wildlife and warm lowland air without a long trip.

We accept bank transfer, credit card and authorised payment gateways, in US dollars or the Nepalese rupee equivalent; international transaction fees are borne by the traveller, and a payment counts as made only once the funds reach our account.

- Chartered helicopters, peak-climbing royalties and pre-paid activities.
