Sukute Beach Rafting

OVERVIEW

The trip

Sukute Beach rafting is a relaxed riverside overnight on the Bhotekoshi, about three to four hours east of Kathmandu, that pairs white water with a night on the sand. You drive out along the Araniko Highway, stopping at the hilltop Palanchowk Bhagwati temple on the way, and settle into a beach resort on the riverbank where the pace slows right down. There is time for a raft on the Bhotekoshi, a swim, dinner at the resort and a bonfire on the sand under the stars, with short walks in the surrounding hills for anyone who wants them. The resort looks after your meals, from evening snacks and dinner on the first day to breakfast and lunch on the second. It is an easy, sociable trip that suits families, couples and groups of friends, and the rafting is guided for beginners as well as the more experienced.
